EMERGENCY CREW—John Wilcox, foreground, Raxann Adams, on phone, and Robert Kelly, in driver's seat, are part of the 14-person Crawford County Ambulance Corps that assist injured and sick persons throughout most of the county. Never A Night Off For Ambulance Corps

By Jon Thompson

Four hundred and one times last year Crawford County Ambulance Corps members climbed into ambulances to speed to emergencies ranging from car accidents with 10 persons injured to overdoses and heart attacks.

Every other night of the year - sometimes in rain, fog, 20-below temperatures, or three feet of snow - one of two ambulance crews are on call from 5 p.m. to 7 a.m. with all Corps members on call during the day. The crew supposedly having a night off can't stray too far from their pagers, however. Often the second team will be called out before the first crew returns or sometimes two ambulances will be needed at once.

Why would anyone join the corps? "The whole thing comes down to enjoying helping others," Corps member Raxann Adams said.

"It gives you a good feeling of satisfaction when you're walking down the street and you see someone you've helped out," said Corps member Robert Kelly.

"Sometimes we wonder why we do it when it's two in the morning and you're walking through three feet of snow in some ditch," said John Wilcox, a member of the Corps since 1975 when it was formed. "But then you know it's worth it when someone comes up and thanks you saying he might have been a cripple for the rest of his life without your help."

Ambulance Corps members put in long long hours even before they start making emergency runs. Fifty to sixty hours of advanced First Aid must be taken to be a licensed ambulance attendant. One hundred and forty hours of additional training must be taken to become an Emergency Medical Technician (E.M.T.) and state law requires each ambulance to have one E.M.T. in it.

Of the 14-member Crawford County Ambulance Corps, nine are E.M.T.'s and five are licensed ambulance attendants. Four of the five licensed attendants are currently taking E.M.T. training coordinated by Tony Doremire, director of the Crawford County Ambulance Corps. Doremire said the 140 hours of training includes 56 hours of classroom work instruction by physicians, 28 hours of instruction from other professionals in the medical field, and 12 hours of practical work in an emergency room.

Doremire says the training is necessary to deal with multiple accident scenes and other tough situations.

"People without training tend to have tunnel vision and get hysterical at bad accident scenes," Doremire said. "The 140 hours of training teaches you what to do whether there's one person hurt or ten."

Doremire said E.M.T.'s are taught "triage," a practice of looking at all the victims first and treating the most serious cases first.

"You still go through the same procedure whether there's three persons or twelve hurt."

One of the worst things to happen at an accident scene, he said, is to have a good Samaritan come along and move an injured person out of an automobile.

"Many people think if the spinal cord hasn't been severed in the accident then it's okay to move them. But by moving the person a back injury can then sever the spinal cord."

"We'd rather find people still in the car then have them moved or crawl out. People would be amazed at the number of persons we find at accidents walking around with serious injuries. It's gotten to the point now where if there is someone walking around at an accident scene we usually wind up treating them first."

He said the police will often sit people in the patrol car after an accident just to get them calmed down sitting in one place so they don't injure themselves further.

Doremire said the toughest ambulance runs he's went on were aiding cross-country skiers in snow too deep for a sheriff dept.'s snowmobile and helping carrying an ORV rider a half mile out of the woods on a backboard in 95-degree heat.

Wilcox said one of his first ambulance runs was one of the toughest. He and two auxiliary policemen were the first ones to a serious accident involving a 16-year-old. The boy lived but lost his leg.

Doremire said each ambulance member has his own certain type of run he dislikes, but every ambulance crew member he knows hates accidents involving children.

State Reviews Crawford Transit Building Plan

By Jon Thompson

The Michigan Dept. of Transportation is reviewing a Crawford County proposal for a $623,704 transit depot to be located at the Grayling McNamara Airport. The entire cost of the 15,300-square-foot building would be paid by the federal and state government if the proposal is approved by both levels of government.

The proposed building would house the entire fleet of Dial-A-Ride buses and provide maintenance facilities. Included in the building would be a communication room, offices, and a waiting room for bus passengers and possibly airport passengers.

Bob Palmer presented the proposal at a public hearing held November 8 at the county commission board meeting and no objections were recorded against the proposal.

Robert Chappel, head of the Crawford County Transportation Authority, said the proposal is only in the preliminary stage - no building plans have been drawn.

He said actual architectural plans could cost as much as $30,000 and would be included in the 75 percent federal and 25 percent state funding. Right now, he said, just the time and effort of Palmer and others have been invested in a chance of obtaining the transit building.

Currently, Crawford County Public Transit has a small maintenance garage along M-72 East and a communication room at the airport building.

K-Mart Annual Payroll Tabbed at $900,000

By Jon Thompson

The annual payroll for 80 to 90 persons employed at the Grayling K-Mart would be about $900,000, Agree Development Company officials told the Crawford County Economic Development Corporation.

Agree Development is planning to build a $2.7 million store on a 5.6-acre site along I-75 business loop and lease it to K-Mart. Agree has applied to the EDC for low interest bonds and a public hearing on the application will be held Wednesday, November 30, from 2:30 to 3:30 p.m. during a regular meeting of the Crawford County Board of Commissioners.

Agree Development announced earlier they planned to break ground before January and have the store open by summer. The store will cover 52,320 square feet - about the same size as the Gaylord store - and is expected to gross $5 million in sales in a year. Agree Development said they are not seeking any local tax abatement which means the store will add about $65,000 in taxes to local units.

Jim Weiner, from Agree Development, said K-Mart expects to hire most employees from the Grayling area. K-Mart will announce 60 to 90 days before the store opens when they will be accepting applications.

County Officials Asked About Voluntary Cut

By Jon Thompson

All elected, appointed, and salaried county employees are being asked by county commissioners for comments on a volunteer pay cut.

In a letter to all county officials, county commissioners asked for their reactions to a volunteer pay cut of one day a month to help balance the county budget.

Commissioner Don Welsner proposed the volunteer pay cuts at the November 8th commissioners' meeting saying the 1984 proposed budget is way out of balance and a lot of expenses are in payrolls.

He said a volunteer pay cut for officials would hit the top of the pay scale instead of at the bottom, the workers who usually suffer in budget crunches. He said a volunteer pay cut would be better than lay-offs.

The cuts are proposed to be voluntary to avoid conflict with laws governing salaries of elected officials.

GPA Plans Christmas Celebration

Plans are being finalized by the Grayling Promotional Association for a Christmas Celebration to be held in Grayling this holiday season. The celebration will begin Thursday, December 1 as carols are sung and the city lights up for Christmas. We have heard that Santa hopes to arrive then, too!

Events are being planned for Friday, December 2 also. On Saturday, Dec. 3 there will be a community bazaar and bake sale which your club or organization is invited to participate in. Please call Maureen McNamara at 348-2181 or Rose Duley at 348-9214 for information. There is no charge for space for your bazaar and bake sale.

Other activities during December will be special shopping days for women, men and kids, a day for Sr. Citizens, a library day for the kids, much caroling, and lots of holiday spirit. Watch for more news in next week's Avalanche.

If you have an event you would like published in our Christmas Community Calendar (which will receive wide distribution), call Deanne Weiss at 348-9717 or 348-2044 as soon as possible.

VETERANS DAY CEREMONY—Prayers, a seven-gun salute, the Pledge of Allegiance, and the singing of God Bless America were all part of a Veterans Day ceremony directed last Friday by Grayling State Bank president Jack Alef. The American Legion Post of Grayling and the Michigan National Guard both supplied color guards for the ceremony on a solemn, chilly morning.

Whitey Madsen

From Our Corner...

Welcome hunters to the northland...in case you read this little tidbit we do wish you luck in your efforts in catching one of those wily whitetails...one who has spent 90 percent of their life where the deer roam really have no interest in the venison that all of you are after and so we hope that those of you who are truly sportsmen will fill your license, caution...be sure before you shoot...a deer is not worth a life...

Grayling's main street did take on a different look from the normal Sunday afternoon...there are some days one could shoot a cannon down the street and not hit anything, not so, this past Sunday, there were quite a few cars and people around...must be the early birds...season opened Tuesday...

Our T.C. gals, T.J. and Stefany left for home Sunday afternoon with mom Toni after grandma girl sit for them over the weekend...they spent some time at the St. Mary's Bazaar, Merc and John's Hallmark and spent all their money...we told them, that was fine because they helped the economy of Grayling while they were here...the problem, Grandma told us it was going to take her a week to rest up from the weekend which she is supposed to be resting from her job out at MATES...

We were asked quite a few times last week how come we weren't wearing our blue and gold Big M cap...one even asked if we had forsaken Bo because the Big Blue weren't going to the Rose Bowl this year...for Mike Mac and all those of you who are interested, the ol' fella's noggin got a bit chilly when that white stuff greeted us last weekend, and no, we haven't forsaken Bo, we will probably cry blue when he loses in another bowl come New Years Day...we're something like good ol' green and white Bill...we grew up with gold and blue in our eyeballs...really it is a bit chilly for summer caps...

Old coaches don't just fade into life, some come back and take over something where they started out as...taking over the junior varsity...we understand that Coach Tom St. Germain will head up this years junior Vikings and will be assisted by his son Gerry...good news abounds for the round ball season...

A personal memo to Mel in Florida...we received your letter to the editor, but in no way can we use it...although we agree about the radio, without a signature it would be considered sour grapes...have a nice winter...when we hire someone to shovel that white stuff we will be thinking about you on the golf course...

The following appeared in The Spotlight newspaper in Washington, D.C. "COUNTY POWER. Crawford County, Michigan, (where the town of Grayling is located) is flexing its political muscle in the global field by passing a resolution opposing the latest megabank bail-out—the 1983 supplement appropriation for the International Monetary Fund (IMF). The county commissioners noted that the IMF regularly subsidizes "often hostile countries and irresponsible lending practices of international bankers," and that the $8.4 billion proposed to be handed out would cost two cents out of every U.S. income tax dollar. The local lawmakers advocated that the IMF use its substantial gold reserves to prevent worldwide default." The resolution was presented by Don Welser and was passed by the board of commissioners. It was sent to all counties in Michigan, to Congressmen and Senators as well as the White House. The board received a reply from the White House. The local board is also considering adopting the resolution for the New State of Michigan. All we can add is Amen...

Have run out of time and space for this week's turkey so will bid T.J., Stefany and Amber good-night and to all of our readers, have a nice weekend, and if you are a hunter, good luck and be careful...I almost forgot, John took a couple hours out last Saturday while setting up deer camp and he and Toni put the ol' fella's storm windows up which was much appreciated...

Gentiles Minister
To The Jews

Romans 15:23-27

As you remember in Romans 15:8-13 Jesus ministered to the Jews that they might reach the Gentiles. In Romans 15:14-22 Paul ministered as a Jewish apostle to the Gentiles. Now in Romans 15:23-33 we shall study the Gentiles ministering to the needs of the Jewish saints in Jerusalem. The gospel of Jesus Christ always ministers to the spiritual needs of the heart before the social needs of the stomach are met. The social gospel of the religious liberal places the needs of the stomach ahead of the heart.

In verses 23 and 24 Paul shares with the saints of Rome his desire and plans to visit them that they might have opportunity for mutual sharing in his ministry. "But now having no more place in these parts, and having a great desire these many years to come unto you: Whensoever I take my journey into Spain, I will come to you: for I trust to see you in my journey, and to be brought on my way thitherward by you, if first I be somewhat filled with your company."

There are a number of things we can learn from this physical gift from the Gentile churches to the poor saints of Jerusalem.

1. It was a Christian ministry. "But now I go unto Jerusalem to minister unto the saints." Romans 15:25.

2. It was a voluntary ministry of gratitude and joy. "For it hath pleased them of Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor saints which are at Jerusalem." Romans 15:26.

3. It was an obligation or debt because of the spiritual ministry of the Jews to them. "It hath pleased them verily; and their debtors they are. For if the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, their duty is also to minister unto them in carnal things." Romans 15:27.

Perhaps it would be wise for us to pause as Americans and consider the debt we owe the nation of Israel for the spiritual blessings we have today which came through God's chosen people. It was through the nation of Israel that we received the Word of God in print. Our Bibles were first written down and preserved by Jews, both in the Old Testament by the nation of Israel, and in the New Testament by Jews in the churches. Our Lord Jesus Christ, the Jewish Messiah, was born of the seed of David, a Jew. Our present and future military safety as long as we support and protect the nation of Israel. Genesis 12:3. We should not begrudge Israel of any economic or military aid regardless of the source. (adv.)

Mysterious Black Abbot To Be Revealed November 17

Who is the mysterious Black Abbot? And what is he doing in Grayling? Answers to these and many more confusing questions will be revealed on Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings, November 17, 18 and 19, for those are the evenings that the Grayling High School Players will present the opening show of their 1983-84 season. This first show, which will be staged in the high school auditorium is entitled, "The Mystery of The Black Abbot". The play is an adaptation for the stage by Tim Kelly of the famous English mystery-novel, The Black Abbot.

The setting for the play is an English mansion in the village of Chelford. The story takes place in 1928, and the Grayling High School Players are going to great lengths to capture the atmosphere of those famous English "dark house" shows which were so famous during the late twenties and thirties. Hidden passageways, moving fireplaces, gloved hands reaching through the window and the famous, "screams in the night" are all part of this mysterious evening of fun and entertainment.

Tickets for the play are presently on sale and can be purchased from any member of the cast or they can be ordered by mail by calling the community school office during the evening hours. Ticket prices are $2.50 in advance and $3.00 at the door. Curtain time has been set at 8:00 p.m.

Hanson Park Lodge Gets Facelift

Visitors to Hanson Park will notice that the lodge building has taken on a new look, the entire front has been covered with rustic siding. In the spring, the new siding will be painted dark brown to match the remaining portions of the building. All of the work in the face-lift operation was completed by a crew of boys from Camp Shawono. Both dugouts on the softball field also received new siding of the same kind.

The facelift operation was an inexpensive one for the Grayling Recreation Authority. The siding was milled from trees which were cut on park property. The trees were mature poplar which were in need of harvesting as they were beginning to deteriorate. The trees were cut by the crew from Camp Shawono and hauled to the mill by park personnel. Milling of the siding was donated by Stampfly's Sawmill.

One note of disappointment however is that fact that the night following the completion of the siding job on the dugouts, vandals saw fit to completely cover one of the dugouts with spray paint.

Road Commission Minutes

October 7, 1983

A regular meeting of the Crawford County Road Commission was held in their office in Grayling. Chairperson Kraus presiding. Present were: Chairperson Kraus, Commissioner Norman Parker and Grover Cason, Engineer-Manager Keir, and Acting-Secretary Joanne Turner.

The minutes of the previous meeting of September 23, 1983 were read. Commissioner Parker made a motion to accept the minutes with a correction, seconded by Commissioner Cason. All voted in favor, minutes approved.

Payroll Voucher No. 20 in the amount of $20,061.61 and Material Vouchers Numbers 593 through 657 in the amount of $39,174.93 were presented to the Board for payment. Commissioner Cason made a motion to accept the vouchers, seconded by Commissioner Parker. All voted in favor, vouchers signed.

A permit was received from Top O' Michigan Rural Electric Company to construct an aerial crossing on Stephan Bridge Road. Three permits were received from General Telephone Company to bury communication cable on Arrowhead Road in Frederic Township, Skyline Road in Beaver Creek Township and Danish Landing Road in Grayling Township. The Board reviewed all permits and approved them.

Engineer-Manager Keir informed the Board of the Southern Association of Road Commissioners Meeting and Liability Insurance Pooling Meeting to be held this month. Engineer-Manager Keir was authorized to join the National Association of County Engineers.

Engineer-Manager Keir informed the Board of repairs made to a 1973 grader and its present condition. It was agreed to investigate possible replacement.

At 11:00, William MacMillan, Vice-President of Governmental Benefits Group, Inc. appeared before the Board with various options for a Pension Plan. A special meeting will be held on October 11, 1983 with all employees in attendance.

The Grayling Planning Commission contacted the Road Commission regarding abandonment of an alley in Portage Lake Park No. 2. They have no opposition, therefore, Commissioner Parker offered the following Resolution, seconded by Commissioner Cason.

WHEREAS, a petition was duly filed with this Board signed by freeholders of the Township of Grayling, Crawford County, Michigan for the vacation and absolute abandonment of that part of an 12 foot alley located within the 2nd Addition of Portage Lake Park, Grayling Township, Crawford County, Michigan described as follows, to wit:

All that part in Block 5 from Lake Avenue to Lincoln Park Boulevard between Lots 1 through 19, 22 and 23 through 46.

IT IS HEREBY RESOLVED, that the above described part of alley is hereby vacated and absolutely abandoned, and

IT IS FURTHER RESOLVED, that a full records and return of the proceeding in this matter be filed as required by law.

The New Dream

By Rev. Thomas A. Bruno
Minister of
The Congregational Church
Roscommon

A story is told about a group of birds that decided to form a church. So a very important meeting was called by the birds and since the meeting was open to the public, birds of all kinds came.

During the meeting, the Duck stood up and said, "I think we should require baptism by immersion. It's the only way we can get their pocketbooks wet." So the argument was on, but the Parrot said, "I don't think baptism is the important thing. What we need is a good program!"

It was time for the Mockingbird who said, "What about the choir?" We must have a good choir and organ. "Oh," said the Thrush, "we don't want an organ, a piano is much better." But the Oriole didn't want a musical instrument at all. And the Sparrow said it would be just as well if they threw out music altogether. Then the Goose stood up and said, "What we really need is a preacher who is good with young people. If we don't attract the young people, the other churches in town will gobble them up for sure." The Starling thought it was more important that their preacher be a good mixer. And the Bluejay figured if the preacher would lay off sin and stuff like that which is negative, almost anyone would do, as long as he was popular and liked in the community.

The real wrangle, however, was over the budget. Some thought everyone should tithe, providing they could afford it. Others thought they should just put a plate at the back of the church and take no offering at all. All they needed was faith.

Finally, the wise old Owl arose. Everyone grew quiet, for they knew he had great wisdom. "Brothers and sisters," he began, "all these things are secondary...What we need is sincerity." All the birds applauded and whistled. That was the greatest thing they had heard.

"Yes, sir," repeated the Owl, "above everything we must be sincere."

And so they FORMED the church. Quite frankly, it was for the birds!

Workfare/Energy Agreement Reached

Warren M. Hoyt, Executive Director, MPA

An agreement between House and Senate legislators and the Executive Office has been reached on spending the disputed $42.6 million between workfare and energy programs.

Representative David Hollister (D-Lansing), one of the leading legislators in the negotiations, said the agreement was reached on "good faith" between the different sides and said "there shouldn't be any major controversy" approving the legislation.

Representative Ralph Ostling (R-Roscommon), the other principal negotiator from the House side, told his Republican colleagues that while legislators got "sucked into" negotiations with the Senate on the proposal, it "is as close as we can get while keeping some personal credibility and credence."

The proposal will employ a portion of the Senate Republican proposal "MOST" plan (Michigan Opportunity and Skills Training) which will cost approximately $8 million in general funds. The MOST portion will include education and job training for welfare recipients.

The proposal will also include a neighborhood works program, which House Fiscal Agency officials said will cost approximately $13.1 million.

Participants in the program would be paid minimum wage, Hollister said, and while the program will not be punitive, persons refusing to participate will be subject to current sanctions and cut off from three months of benefits.

The program does not include an emphasis on workfare done by private firms, however, which is what House Republicans had wanted.

Ostling said a pilot private firm program will be included in the package. A bill recently approved in the House Appropriations Committee would center the workfare component largely on private firms performing home weatherization projects and hiring welfare recipients as employees.

The energy portion of the agreed upon package will provide shutoff protection for some 42,000 recipients, while permitting "vending" of utility grants directly to the utility companies.

Home weatherization projects would be performed by community agencies that would hire welfare recipients, but no figure on how much the program will cost has been agreed to, Hollister reported.

Negotiations have been in progress since early summer, when the House and Senate failed to reach accord on the $42.6 million and agreed to hold the issue over until an agreement was reached.

The $42.6 million was initially proposed by Governor Blanchard as welfare grant level increases but the House converted the figure to utility shutoff protection while the Senate insisted it be used for workfare.

Suit Filed Against BASF Wyandotte

A promise by BASF Wyandotte to charge the movement of contaminated groundwater near its North and South Works plant failed to avoid a lawsuit filed by Attorney General Frank Kelley demanding the company clean up the pollution.

A June, 1981, sampling by the Department of Natural Resources found 16 toxic and carcinogenic chemicals in eight soil and groundwater sites.

The contaminated water flows to the Detroit River and ultimately to Lake Erie, Kelley said when he threatened on August 29 to file suit in U.S. District Court in Detroit if the immediate cleanup was not begun and dumping of hazardous chemicals halted.

Kelley said the company's proposed study to chart groundwater movement "is a logical first step. I am disappointed, however, that the company won't make a firm commitment to clean up the contamination which it admits is present on these sites."

Celebrate 50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin J. Lucksted Sr. of Grayling celebrated their 50th Wedding Anniversary with a surprise party given in their honor by their children on October 15, 1983 at Sullivan's North in Saginaw. Their children came from Oklahoma, Missouri and Illinois to help celebrate the affair.

Melvin James Lucksted married Charlotte M. Miller on November 18, 1933 in Detroit, Mich. They have 10 children and 18 grandchildren.

Over 100 friends and relatives attended the surprise party given in their honor.

What's So Special?

By: Sharon Prislipsky

"I've worked with Robert for hours and he still writes a 'd' instead of a 'b'," said his first grade teacher. "He's so active," his mother remarked. "He never watches a television program from start to finish. Always in motion. It makes me tired just to watch him!"

"There's nothing wrong with that boy!" Robert's father told me emphatically. "He's only seven years old and he can just about take the lawn mower apart and put it back together without any help from me. Anyway, I didn't do too well in school when I was young, but I outgrew it."

These comments are typical. Robert has a learning disability. He first came to special education last fall after struggling through kindergarten and junior primary. In the readiness class, before going to first grade, he was puzzled as he tried to learn to read and write the alphabet. How could "b" become "d", or "p", or "q", just by changing its position on the paper? And doesn't "was" look just like "saw"? After two years in school, he excels in math, but still has made little progress in learning to read.

Robert isn't retarded. He isn't a "slow learner". There is nothing wrong with his vision or hearing. He is not emotionally disturbed, although he could develop signs of emotional problems if he did not have patient, caring parents and teachers who accept and understand his problem.

Robert won't improve in school by doing more homework each night. It won't help to withhold privileges when he does poorly on an assignment. Demanding adults won't help him do better. It is tempting to say "I know he's smart and could do it if he tried", but he can't. No amount of pressure from adults can help.

Yet, Robert can learn to read. Special teachers who know how to work with children who are learning disabled are employed in every public school in our area. By trying other, perhaps non-traditional methods, the school psychologist and special teacher can learn about Robert's strengths. If you visit the special education room, you may see him

Adopt A Smoker Nov. 17

Smoking cigarettes is no laughing matter; neither is quitting. But once a year thousands of serious quitters do have some fun as they try to make it through the day without a cigarette. The occasion is the Great American Smokeout, an annual celebration when the American Cancer Society urges smokers to go a full 24 hours without cigarettes. This year Smokeout Day is Thursday, November 17.

Official "Adopt A Smoker" certificates will arrange for nonsmokers to adopt a smoker for the day and try to lead their

This is the seventh anniversary of the Great American Smokeout. Last year, according to a Gallup study, 3 out of 10 cigarette smokers either cut down or cut out smoking for the day. About 2.3 million of these quitters were still not smoking 1 to 11 days later.

Adopt a smoker for the Great American Smokeout, November 17. Help that smoker get through the day without a cigarette - and maybe off them for good!

Crawford AuSable Parents Group

The Crawford AuSable Parents Group invites all parents to attend a special evening program featuring our school principals on Tuesday, November 29 from 7:30 to 9:00 p.m. at the County Courthouse.

Carl Naghtin, Dale Nicholas, Pat Nunn, and Dave Hawkins have accepted an invitation to let parents "Ask the Principal". Each administrator will present the one area of school life they consider to be the strongest in their building. They will also inform us about one area in their building they are currently working to improve.

Following these brief presentations, parents will have the opportunity to address written questions to the principals regarding their programs. First priority will be given to questions related to the presentations made that evening. If time permits, questions on other topics of interest will be addressed.

Mrs. Sandi Davis will serve as moderator for the evening. She will receive the written questions and direct them to the appropriate administrator. Questions regarding individual staff members or students will not be addressed. These should be taken privately to the principal of the building in question.

Information about the Crawford AuSable Parents Group will be provided following the presentations and question period. Interested parents may attend a brief meeting of the Parents Group following the program.

The Crawford AuSable Parents Group has identified improved communication between home and school as one of its prime goals. This program is the first attempt at reaching that goal. We certainly hope you will attend.

"A serious accident with a 90-year-old man is bad enough. Multiply that by three or four kids and it's hard on everybody."

Besides Wilcox and Doremire, two other Corps members - Dean Goss and Mike Hauxwell - were on the original Corps founded in 1975. In addition to Kelly and Adams, Pat Kucharek, Jim Gray, Sue Boardman, Dan Schrock, Kathy Kelly, Russ Strohpaul, and Jeff Bond man the ambulances for the city of Grayling, Grayling Township, and parts of Beaver Creek, South Branch, and Lovells. A Frederic ambulance crew covers Frederic and Maple Forest townships and part of Lovells. Roscommon ambulance crews cover the southern portions of South Branch and Beaver Creek.

The Crawford County Ambulance Corps received no money for their efforts from 1975 to 1979 and now receive $7.50 for each run. E.M.T.'s are issued three-year licenses and must take a 43-hour class or earn 30 credits to renew their license.

Crawford County Board of Commissioners Chairperson Jeannette Kitchen said she was proud of the Corps and has often heard praise from hospitals about how well patients are treated by our ambulance crews.

Doodles From The Tall Timber

Wendell L. Hoover Park Interpreter

I have said before that pride was an integral part of being a shantyboy and just as important as being skillful at a particular job. Just about every woodsman held some special job, such as teamster, axeman, filer, blacksmith and the like, and was quite capable of doing any of the rest. Versatility was important if the season's logging operation was to be a success. Some say that the blacksmith was in a class by himself when it came to versatility. A blacksmith had to have the answer for sleds, dams, sprinklers, boats, horseshoes, or wherever iron was called for. One woods boss told of an accident in which a transit and the spindle became sprung. If the smith had not been around, he would have had to lay off a survey crew. As it turned out, the smith, with no other tools than he used in his ordinary work, traced it up so that it gave accurate readings and there were no marks of any of his tools on it.

Another smithy went into the woods, cut the material and hauled it into the shop, and in one day hewed out runners, bar, bunks, and tongue, and left a yarding-sled, all ironed off ready to hitch a team on that night. A blacksmith was paid more than most woodsmen, and with good reason, for his hours were long and his work hard. Something was always broken and needing repair or replacement: sleds, chains, neck-yokes, whiffletrees, cant hooks, and so on. He might work all night shoeing horses so they would be ready to go out at daylight. One wonders how, without academic knowledge of the theory of mechanics or the strength of materials, he gained the ability to proportion each part of the things he created. A blacksmith had to be skillful and versatile.

Kellogg-Welch Speak Vows

Miss Pamela Jo Kellogg became the bride of Wayne Gerald Welch, in a double ring ceremony at St. John Lutheran Church on Saturday, October 8, 1983. Pastor Robert Haskel officiated. The bride was accompanied to the altar by her father, Bill Kellogg, Sr.

Pamela is the daughter of Connie Cosgrove, of Grayling and Bill Kellogg Sr. of Belleville. Wayne is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Welch of Grayling.

The bride wore a gown of white silk organza overlay and carried a bouquet of yellow orchids and white roses.

Deanna Gildner was the matron of honor, bridesmaids were Selena Welch and Jacqueline Kolka. They wore matching yellow floor length gowns and carried bouquets of long stemmed roses.

Domenico Galvani served as best man with Bill Kellogg, Jr., brother of the bride and Joel Rasmussen as groomsmen. They were attired in matching silver tuxes with yellow carnations. Ushers were Todd Kellogg, brother of the bride and Jay Lozon.

Clara Sorenson, the bride's aunt furnished the music.

The wedding cake was made & decorated by the bride's step-mother, Margaret Kellogg, it was a three tier cherry-chip cake with white frosting and yellow flowers to match the gowns. A reception followed at the Eagles Club in Grayling.

Out of town guests attending were from Flint, Bay City, Detroit, Petoskey, Grand Rapids, East Jordan and California.

Editor's Mailbox

To The Editor,
News of Commissioner Welser's solitary no vote on the Crawford County EDC Resolution to initiate the K-Mart project in Grayling left me speechless. Coming from an elected official pledged to act in the best interests of his constituents, his opposition is incomprehensible. As one of those constituents, I feel betrayed.

His NO was a vote against 80 to 90 new jobs in a community suffering staggering unemployment and pathetic personal hardships - as evidenced by our welfare statistics.

His NO was a vote against an annual $65,000.00 in additional tax revenue desperately needed to fund the vital services presently paid for by local property owners.

His NO was a vote against a $900,000.00 annual payroll which would roll over numerous times in this community, strengthening existing businesses, and creating the local purchasing power needed to stimulate employment and contribute to a decent standard of living for all of us.

His NO was a vote against more than $200,000.00 in additional sales tax for the State, whose financial dilemma has seriously threatened the stability of local government.

Finally, and most significantly, his NO was a vote against all of our right to a climate of free enterprise and lively competition in the local market place. The fusion of discerning consumers and wise and competitive merchants has historically resulted in a thing called mutual prosperity. Do we in Crawford County not have a right to participate in that prosperity?

Why would anyone, particularly a high-ranking local official, stand in isolated opposition to a long-sought enterprise which asks no tax abatement, while guaranteeing new jobs, tax relief, healthy diversity in the market place and economic stimulus to both the State and our community? Why indeed? What or whose purpose could such opposition possibly serve? Mr. Welser may have one reason or 228 reasons to rationalize his attempt to block K-Mart. I can't think of even one that makes any sense.

MICHIGAN HISTORICAL LANDMARK JIGSAW PUZZLES

"AN ADVENTURE IN LEARNING"

Puzzles are fine educational gifts for children and families you care about. In this regard all puzzles have the benefit of improving the eye-hand coordination of those who assemble them. However, the "Landmark" series goes a step further in the education process. Each puzzle comes with a short written summary of historical highlights. This listing enhances the learning experience as well as adding enjoyment to the assembling process.

"The Perfect Gift for All Ages and Every Occasion"

ELEMENTARY FUND-RAISER—The Grayling Elementary School will be earning money from the sale of Michigan Historical Landmark jigsaw puzzles. Proceeds from the sale of the puzzles, made by White Pine Aviation, a Grayling firm, will be used for educational enrichment programs such as field trips.

Miss Peterson is a graduate of Hartford High School and is employed at P&R Shell in Benton Harbor. Her fiancé is a graduate of Watervliet High School and is employed at Plaza Shell in Benton Harbor. Kelly is the granddaughter of Wilma LaGrow and Jenny Petersen. A May 19, 1983 wedding is planned.

Light Turnout For Meeting

Only five persons attended the Crawford County Snowmobile Council meeting last week. Individuals who attended the session were surprised at the fact that there is so much snowmobiling in the area. They noted that whenever there is a period of time during the winter where trails are not groomed the public is up in arms. They said that certainly businesses would want to get involved where they depend on the snowmobile trade. It was stated at the meeting that the very idea of a council and its affiliation with the Michigan Snowmobile Association is to have a voice in funding and state regulations related to the sport. The committee elected to try one more time to have an organizational session on November 28 at 7:30 p.m. at the Holiday Inn. The committee urged that anyone interested in having a voice in the future of the sport for any reason should attend.

Blueprints For Family Living

By Rev. R.H. Wadsworth
The room in which I am staying today (the day I am writing this, not the day you are reading it) overlooks a tennis court. My reading, writing, and praying are frequently disturbed by the sounds that carry up from the court. This morning two women were playing. During their games they kept up a running conversation on a variety of subjects, none of which were related to tennis. Into this flowing stream of chatter an occasional question about the game intruded. "Was that my first or second serve?" "What's the score now?"

I thought to myself, "Surely they can't be playing well. With their minds and mouths flitting from subject to subject, the tennis must be terrible." Finally, I stood up from the desk and looked. Sure enough, tennis balls were flying in all directions, most of the time at wrong speeds and wrong altitudes. A few shots missed the net, a few landed in bounds. Neither player could evoke the ghost of Helen Wills Moody. To excel at anything, concentration is necessary. Is this why so many are mediocre Christians? Of course, being a Christian is not the only thing we must do. There is bread to be earned, homes to be maintained, children to be raised, church activities to be shared. But being a Christian is what we should do all the while we are doing everything else. The mechanic, as he repairs an engine, can't be content with mechanical skills. He should be a Christian mechanic, relating himself to people and things daily in a way that pleases Christ and benefits others. No one can be a Christian only when is off duty. Being a Christian must permeate the duty as it is done and have top priority in our thought, speech, and action. "This one thing I do," said Paul, speaking of his pursuit of Christ and Christlikeness.

Becoming a better disciple does not happen automatically or unconsciously. We have to work at it, concentrating desire and effort upon it.

In, with, and through our total activities, we must make Christianity the main business of our lives. Nothing is more important than becoming increasingly like Jesus Christ. (This article was taken from the "Herald of Holiness" (November 1, 1983, Page 17) written by W.E. McCumber). (Sponsored by the Grayling Church of the Nazarene)

One shot at an insulator can drop a city in its tracks.

I know, because I'm a Consumers Power lineman, and it's my job to search for the cause of a power failure. People who shoot out insulators forget that a single shot can bring down a house, a factory, a hospital or even an entire city. 7 Vikings Receive Conference Honors

13 Crawford Co. Avalanche Thurs., Nov. 17, 1983

By Jon Thompson

Seven Grayling Vikings earned all-conference honors in football this season - the most Vikings to ever win league honors in the Michigan Huron Shores Conference.

Seniors Greg Helsel and Darrin White along with junior Rodney Patterson won first team honors and seniors Mike Hickey and Jim Stewart plus juniors Jon Nicholas and Barsie Cross were given honorable mention.

Helsel, at 5'10" and 160 pounds, was the leader of a defense that recorded six shutouts - the most by a GHS team since joining the MHSC in 1972. Helsel, a league honorable mention winner last year, had 120 tackles, recovered 4 fumbles, and blocked an extra point along with kicking an extra point that helped Grayling upset St. Ignace 7-6. He won a Golden Helmet Award from the Bay City Times for his play in St. Ignace's only defeat of the year.

White, at 6'3" and 220 pounds, anchored the defense line. Often double teamed he still had 67 tackles, five quarterback sacks, and recovered one fumble. On offense he caught 20 passes for 219 yards as a tight end and Grayling ran 90 percent of their running plays behind his blocking. He caught one conversion pass for two points.

Patterson, at 5'11" and 170 pounds, led the defense with 140 solo tackles along with two fumble recoveries and one interception. He rushed for 169 yards in 45 attempts from his running back position and caught 4 passes for 39 yards. He scored three touchdowns.

Hickey led the team in receptions grabbing 25 for 315 yards. He scored three touchdowns including a 40-yard touchdown grab. On defense in recorded 50 tackles and four interceptions.

Stewart completed 53 of 128 passes for 41 percent and 512 yards. He ran for one touchdown on a 54-yard gallop and threw for 5 touchdowns. He had 34 tackles on defense along with one interception.

Nicholas led the team in rushing yardage gaining 728 on 185 attempts. He scored 6 touchdowns and one conversion. His longest run went for 54 yards and a touchdown. On defense he had 29 tackles and one interception.

Cross rushed for 436 yards on 65 attempts for a 6.7 average and three touchdowns. On defense he had 48 solo tackles and three interceptions.

Grayling went 7-2 for the year and won a share of the Class C league title.

Girls Finish at 14-4, Begin Tournament Run

By Jon Thompson

Grayling finished their best ever regular season last week with two wins and now set their sights on tournament victories beginning district play Monday night at Houghton Lake.

The Houghton Lake district starts with Beaver Lake Thursday and Roscommon playing Whittemore Prescott Friday. Grayling drew a bye and plays the winner of the Beaverton-Houghton Lake game Monday, November 21, at 7 p.m. at Houghton Lake.

The winner of that game plays the winner of Roscommon-Whittemore for the district title Wednesday, November 23, at 7 p.m. at Houghton Lake.

Roscommon is the only team in the district besides Grayling with a winning record, finishing 10-4 in the Jack Pine League. Grayling beat Roscommon 49-37 in their second game of the season, but that game was at the Grayling court and Viking head coach Tom Mills said after the game Roscommon was a club that was going to get better as the season progressed.

Grayling tuned up for tournament action with a 54-26 win at St. Ignace and a 37-33 win against Rogers City at home during Parents' Night.

At St. Ignace, Kris Laudenslager burned the nets for 23 points and led her team with 16 rebounds. Karyn Reynolds hit for 6 points, Heidi Bendig 6, Erin Jones had 4 points and 11 rebounds, Michelle Barber 4 points, Heidi Derenzky 3, Kris Larson 3, Dawn Phelps 2, Lisa LaMotte 2, and Shelly Trenary 1.

Grayling had a slow first quarter leading 6-5 and steadily increased their lead 22-15 and 39-19 at the end of the next two quarters.

Against Rogers City, the Vikings found themselves behind 8-4 at the end of eight minutes as they played good defense but missed easy shots.

"We played aggressive defense forcing turnovers," Mills said, "but nothing was falling for us. We must have missed ten lay-ups during the night."

Grayling came back to take a 20-18 half lead and went ahead 30-24 after three periods. Laudenslager again led scorers with 14 points and grabbed 15 rebounds.

Bendig added 10, Reynolds 5, Jones 4, and Barber added a point and 10 rebounds.

Bendig finished third in scoring in the league, Laudenslager 7th and Reynolds 15th. Laudenslager scored more than 200 points and had more than 200 rebounds in 17 games.

Chamber Chatter

By Joyce Kolka

A concentrated new member drive has begun for the chamber and board members are dividing a list of calls to businesses in the area. Co-chairpersons for the drive are Norma Naour and Curt Jansen. The plan calls for eventually to canvas all the businesses in this area who were once chamber members and then those who have never joined.

A new brochure is being discussed by the Board of Directors. It is hoped that the publication will be ready for hand-outs at sport and boat shows.

The Grayling Promotional Women's Organization has a fine list of plans for the Holiday Season. On December 1, Santa will arrive and light the big Christmas tree. December 3 the Crawford County Library will host a children's craft and movie program for youngsters age 3 to 10 years. And December 5 will be Senior Citizens Day.

There is much more to be announced about the plans the ladies have and we will mention them in future weeks.

Mentioning Christmas reminds us that the Business and Professional Women's Community Service committee is working now to prepare baskets for the needy to be handed out during the holidays.

They have informed us that any donations of money or commercially prepared merchandise and used toys will be gratefully accepted. Donations may be sent to Judy Craft at North Country Lodge, telephone 348-8471.

A reminder again to the kids that the annual cartoon movie will be held on Saturday, December 10 at 1:00 p.m. at the Rialto Theatre. Admission will be one or more cans of commercially prepared food. These will ultimately be placed in the baskets for the needy.

Another reminder is the Christmas Home Tour program scheduled for December 18th. It will be an unusual experience according to Ernie Dawson who with Ruth Steffe are co-chairing the event.

The Crawford County Snowmobile Council meeting (see article in this week's Avalanche) was attended last week by only five persons. Certainly there must be many individuals and businesses in the area who want to have a voice in snowmobile activities.

The Orange Coat Roundup will have been held by the time this article goes to press and it is our hope that many fine bucks were displayed on the pole at Skip's Sport Shop.

This week our hats are off to a very busy little gal named JoAnn Cox. JoAnn is the Sales Department of the Holiday Inn of Grayling. She also is a board member of the Grayling Regional Chamber of Commerce and is working on the Snowmobile Council for our area. She is one of the people responsible for all of the conventions coming into Grayling. Keep up the good work JoAnn, we think you're great!!!

The Beginning

They met in church school. Right now I think you could call them childhood sweethearts. You can bet that in a few years they will be embarrassed that Aunt Jessie snapped this picture. But later, who knows? Perhaps they will discover each other again.

Whether they do or not, both these youngsters are luckier than they know. Not because they met in church school, but because they are in church school. They have made a beginning that will sustain them throughout their entire life.

You can't give a child faith. But you can open the door so that he has a chance to find it — the door that leads to church school as well as the door that leads to a life of useful Christian service.

If you never went to church school, that is all the more reason to enroll your youngsters now. If you missed out, don't let them!

Grayling Co-Op Nursery

The most exciting news is the addition of six new swings in our playground which were purchased from a money gift donated by the Grayling Booster Club. Smiles of joy were found on the children at recess time. Now eight children can swing at one time instead of two, as in the past. It's a real asset to our playground and shall be enjoyed by the children each day.

Everyone who attended our Fall Potluck enjoyed the company of other nursery school parents and their families on October 24. Good food and entertainment by the students highlighted the evening. For many of the children, it was their first performance and they all did a fine job.

We are now in the midst of our second fundraising activity for the Nursery School which is selling tickets. Several nice prizes have been donated by Grayling businesses to help us with our success. Some of the prizes include a 10-12 pound ham, a turkey, a Polaroid camera, a $100.00 Will, a grease and oil job, and others too numerous to mention. Let's all do our share in making this a fundraising success. Tickets may be purchased from any Nursery School parent or call Doreena Dale at 348-3100 if tickets are desired.
